SIR,

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No.4405/C.B. dated the 20th February 1923, I have the honour to forward herewith a letter received by me from Mr. Alderton. Mr. Alderton's leave was sanctioned prior to the transfer of the control of the Industrial Schools to the Department of Industries and I am not aware of the understanding arrived at the time of the grant of the leave. Mr. Alderton says that if he is not permitted to affix the Dasara Holidays to his leave much inconvenience will be caused to him as he will have to be in India prior to Christmas which he wants to spend in England. The permission sought for may be given.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Director.

Submitted with references.

The formal notification sanctioning the casual leave was issued on 31.8.22. The S. Institute was transferred to the Director of Industries & Commerce from 1st July 1922.

Mr. Alderton says that a month before he left Mysore, i.e., in August 1922, he received letters from the Head of his Department permitting him to avail of furlough in continuation of the Dasara Holidays.

MRN. Govt is not aware of the circumstances under which such permission was given to him.

The Compr. who raised the question in his letter dtd 10th Oct 1922 was informed, that no permn to prefix the Dasara Holidays was given to Mr. Alderton.

The leave was sanctioned with effect from 20th Sept 1922

With reference to letter No.4405/CB dated 20th February 1923, from the Chief Secretary concerning the date of the commencement of Mr. Alderton's leave., I much regret to bring to your notice that from the wording of the letter it is quite evident that Government have been misinformed.

The letter states that previous application was not made, --- whereas Mr. Alderton has letters from the Head of his department, date a month before he left Mysore, giving him permission to avail himself of Furlough in continuation the Dasara Vacation of 1922.

It was only on the assurance placed in this authority that he left at the beginning of a public holiday. The period of combined furlough given allowed exactly time to complete the Xmas celebrations of 1923 before the necessary date of his return, but is now frustrated by this new order.

This present misunderstanding, would cause additional disappointment to his people, to whom, in any case, such a long parting is a great distress.

As the misunderstanding has arisen subsequent to his departure when he had the full written authrity from the Head of his department I request that Government may be asked to re-consider this matter and rectify the injustice.

GO No. 44
28/4/23.

I have looked through the file of papers relating to Mr. Alderton's leave, which was formerly in my office and which was subsequently - transferred to the Office of the Director of Industries and Commerce when the Chamarajendra Technical Institute passed under his control.

The earliest reference in the file is one dated the 12th of January 1922, in which Mr. Alderton applied for combined furlough of 2 years from 20th September 1922 and suggested that he should be - placed on deputation for study during a portion of his leave. On this I addressed Government in my letter No.C.4724/21-22 dated 18th March 1922 recommending the leave but not the deputation for study.

In their letter No.6383 - C.B. 193-21-3 dated 11th April 1922 Government refused to sanction the deputation and stated that they were prepared to give him combined leave for one year. This was communicated to Mr. Alderton, and, on the 18th of May, he again addressed me representing his domestic difficulties and asked that he should at least be given leave for one year and four months. This was forwarded to Government with my letter No.Cl.C.4724 of 21-22 dated 20th May 1922.

On 24th June 1922, Government sent a reply that Mr. Alderton would be given combined leave for one year and four months from 20th September 1922 and formal orders sanctioning the leave would issue in due course. This was communicated to Mr.Alderton on the 30th of June, and as the transfer of the Chamarajendra Technical Institute to the Director of Industries and Commerce was to take effect from 1st July 1922, he was asked to correspond further with the Director of Industries and Commerce.

It will be clear from this that Mr. Alderton did not express in writing any intention to prefix the Dasara Holidays to his leave. The date, 20th September 1922, as the date of commencement of leave, was specifically stated in his first application and was repeated in all subsequent communications. It is just possible that he might have mentioned to me in personal conversation his intention of taking advantage of the Dasara and I might have told him that it could be arranged. But at this distance of time I have no distinct recollection of such a conversation. And so far as I recollect, and so far as I can see from the papers, I do not think I gave him any promise in writing. His request could have easily been complied with if he had handed over charge to one of his assistants, and the new officer appointed to take his place had done so after the Dasara Holidays. But since the institution passed under the Director of Industries and Commerce from 1st July 1922, I had no hand in these arrangements.

I also find from the file of papers that, on the 3rd of July and on the 11th of July 1922, Mr. Alderton wrote to Mr. D'Souza about his taking leave in continuation of the Dasara and asking him for relief on the 26th of September. In reply to this Mr. D'Souza wrote to him on the 13th of July that there was no objection to allow him to take the furlough in continuation of the Dasara Holidays. Copies of these letters are enclosed. It would have been well if this had been reported to Government at this stage and specific orders taken as indeed was suggested by Mr. Alderton.

It was on ~~the~~ 31st August 1922 that the formal orders of Government were issued sanctioning the leave and acting arrangements. In giving effect to the arrangements for relief, it was apparently forgotten that Mr. Alderton wished to prefix the Dasara Holidays to his leave and Mr. Ganesha Iyer who was newly posted to that charge relieved Mr. Alderton on the 26th of September - at the commencement of the Dasara - instead of at the end of the Holidays.

In his present communication dated 23rd March 1923 Mr. Alderton states "The letter states that previous application was not made, whereas Mr.Alderton has letters from the Head of his Department dated a month prior to his departure from Mysore, giving him permission to avail himself of furlough in continuation of the Dasara Vacation 1922".

From the resume of the facts previously given, it seems to me that Mr. Alderton is evidently referring to Mr. D'Souza's letter of the 13th July and not to any letter of mine as I had no correspondence with him after the 30th of June. The Head of Mr. Alderton's Department a month prior to his departure from Mysore was the Director of Industries and not the Inspector General of Education.

In the circumstances the statement of the Director of Industries and Commerce in his letter No.327/c dated 19/21st April 1923 to Government to the effect

"Mr. Alderton's leave was sanctioned prior to the transfer of the control of the Industrial schools to the Department of Industries and I am not aware of the understanding arrived at the time of the grant of the leave," does not seem to be quite accurate seeing that the formal orders sanctioning leave and acting arrangements were issued on 31st August 1922 and that early in July there was correspondence between Mr. Alderton and the Director in which the question of prefixing the Dasara Holidays to the leave was specifically raised by Mr. Alderton and a written promise made by the Director. The present difficulty would not have arisen if the promise to Mr. Alderton had been borne in mind and Mr. Ganesha Iyer had been directed to join duty after the Dasara Holidays.

Returned with compliments.

Copy of D.O.letter No. nil dated 3rd July 1922 from Mr. Alderton to the Director of Industries & Commerce.

I have just received information from the Inspector General that my furlough is sanctioned from 20th September 1922.

I had arranged sometime ago with the Inspector General personally that the furlough should begin in continuation of the Dasara Holidays and I have booked my passage to the date.

Kindly state if this is agreeable to yourself and if it will be necessary to obtain fresh orders from Government for this - later date.

Copy of D.O.letter dated 11th July 1922 to the Director of I & C.

In replying to your D.O.No.O.C.36 of 7/8th inst. could you kindly arrange to relieve me on the 26th of September as I wish to take my furlough in continuation of the Dasara Holidays as this was arranged with Mr. Balasundaram Iyer.
P.S.- Do you know if any acting arrangements are proposed yet? as this is rather an important matter.

Copy of D.O.letter No.O.C.36/22-23 dated 13th July 1922 to Mr. Alderton from the Director of Industries and Commerce.

I am in receipt of your letter of the 11th July 1922. There is no objection to allow you to take the furlough in continuation of the Dasara Holidays. No orders have been passed with regard to the acting arrangements. If you have any suggestions to make in the matter, I shall be very glad to send them to Government.

It seems to me that so far as Mr. Bloch is concerned, he acted in perfect good faith and that his representation is as such deserving of consideration. At the same time it appears to be rough on Mr. Ganesh Iyer to deprive him of the allowance for the period though he acted exactly as ordered. The Finl Secy may be consulted.

My dear D'Souza,

I am sending you the Secretariat file regarding Mr. Alderton's request to be permitted to prefix the Dasara holidays to his leave. The matter was referred un-officially to the Inspector General of Education and his note is sent herewith for your perusal. My dear Matthew

I am returning herewith the Secretariat file regarding Mr. Alderton's request to avail himself of the Dasara Holidays in addition to the leave.

The application of Mr. Alderton for leave was made before I took charge and he had also been promised leave before that. Sometime after I took charge Mr. Alderton mentioned to me that the Inspector-General of Education had agreed to allow him the benefit of the Dasara Holidays and as such a concession would be usually given, I told Mr. Alderton that there would be no objection. He also seems to have written to me on the 11th July '22 mentioning that he would like to have the leave in continuation of the Dasara Holidays as arranged with Mr. Balasundaram Iyer. In the course of my reply I again informed him that there would be no objection to such a course. I thought that he would apply for permission officially in the usual course, but this was not done through an oversight. On receipt of Government orders posting Mr. Ganesa Iyer to the Chamarajendra Technical Institute, I issued instructions that he should go there about a week or a fortnight earlier and familiarise himself with all the details of the work as he was a supernumerary at the time in the office (Copy of the memo enclosed for information). I was particularly anxious that the two officers should meet and come to some understanding before Mr. Alderton went away. It was not therefore convenient to allow Mr. Alderton to hand over charge to the Assistant Superintendent and for the latter to give charge to Mr. Ganesa Iyer. Mr. Ganesa Iyer not having any definite charge in the Department at the time does not suffer in any way by being posted to Mysore and by his new appointment taking effect from the date of the termination of the Dasara Holidays. There are now two courses open, either to treat Mr. Ganesa Iyer's

Surely it was possible for me to specify! Well
